Theresa,

There are not enough words or ways to thank you. I learned so much from your session on online teaching.

I just taught the best synchronous session I have done yet. I have 4 different classes that have now gone online and thanks to you I am not only managing all of them, I once again look forward to teaching. What I got from your session not only changed how I teach online but also how I feel about it. I also look forward to using some of the strategies when I return to f2f teaching.

You made content available by sharing your time and talents when so many of us needed it most. You are a true hero.

THANK YOU, LG
